

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is dense and covers most of the upper half of the page. It appears to be written in a historical form of a Germanic or Slavic language, possibly Old Polish or Old Czech, given the context of the coat of arms below. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge.

Handwritten signature or name in a cursive script, located at the bottom right of the page. It appears to be a personal name followed by a title or location, such as "Johann..." and "von...".
